Terms and Conditions

By applying for this Bursary, you are agreeing to the following Terms and Conditions:

- If you are a new student, you have received and accepted an offer of a place on a City College Plymouth Higher Education programme.
- That the information given in your application/enrolment form is a full and correct statement to the best of your knowledge and that you understand that giving false information may lead to action being taken to recover monies paid. This may also jeopardise any continuing payments from this and any subsequent application you make.

- To inform the college immediately if the details you have given change.
- To strive to attend all classes and activities that form your course.
- That if I leave my course early I should notify the Higher Education team immediately and acknowledge that any payments made above my recalculated entitlement may be reclaimed.
- To provide additional information, if requested, to substantiate your application and evidence that you are entitled to further instalments of any award allocated.

City College Plymouth uses the above information to assess your eligibility for funding and for administration of your course. Information may also be shared with other bodies who administer public funds and in compliance with legal/statutory obligations. City College Plymouth has a duty to protect the public funds it administers and, as such, may use the information you have provided on this form for the detection and prevention of fraud.
