

POLICY STATEMENT

Policy Title: Freedom of Information Act 2000

SCOPE

This policy applies to all members of the College community including students, staff, and governors.

STATEMENT

	The College is committed to providing access to its information (whilst preserving confidentiality where disclosure would be against the law or the public interest) in order to demonstrate its integrity and probity in the spending of the public purse and ensure its accountability for its general business and decision making.

POLICY

Information relating to the College's educational and business activities, together with its decision making processes is available via its Publication Scheme. The College has adopted a model publication scheme developed for the Further Education sector by the Information Commissioner's Office, and is therefore committed to publishing the information it describes. The Scheme is supplemented by a Guide to Information. This Guide gives details of:

- information the College will make routinely available;
- how the information can be accessed; and
- whether or not a charge will be made for it.

THE PUBLICATION SCHEME

The Publication Scheme is available upon the College Website www.cityplym.ac.uk

CHARGES

The College will endeavour to place as much information as is possible upon the internet by way of a free download. However the College reserves the right to charge for hard copy documentation.

ALTERNATIVE FORMATS

The College will not make any additional charge for producing information in an alternative format to accommodate those with special requirements (eg. disabilities – language).

KEY POINTS

1. PUBLICATION

1.1 Identification of Staff

Information regarding the home or family life of an individual, his or her personal finances, or which consists of personal references, will be afforded protection and held to be confidential. By contrast, information which is about the Corporation, Senior Management Team and Senior Post holders acting in an official or work capacity will normally be provided on request unless there is some risk to the individual concerned.

1.2 Identification of Corporation Members

The names of the Corporation Members are placed within the public domain via the Register of Interests, Corporation Minutes, College Governance Notice, and via the Publication Scheme.

1.3 Register of Interests

The Clerk to the Corporation shall maintain a Register of the Interests of the members of the College Corporation, the Senior Management Team and all College staff with significant financial accountabilities as part of their remit. The Register is updated annually and shall be made available during normal office hours at the College to any person wishing to inspect it.

1.4 Identification of Students

Information relating to students shall be afforded protection and held to be confidential in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998, the principles of confidentiality, and subject to the contract between the Student and the College.

1.5 Identification of Student Union Officers and Executive Body Members

The names and responsibilities of the Student Union Officers and Executive Members, together with the Minutes and Agendas of the Student Executive are already placed within the public domain as provided for within the Student Union Constitution.

2. CONFIDENTIALITY & EXEMPTIONS

The College is committed to observing the principles of confidentiality<sup>1</sup>, and honouring its requirements within the Data Protection Act 1998, concerning personal information. In accordance with such constraints some information may be withheld.

The Freedom of Information Act provides a number of exemptions for information to be either withheld or qualified in accordance with public interest. Such categories include:-

- 2.1 personal information relating to an individual
- 2.2 personal information relating to a third party
- 2.3 information provided in confidence by a third party who has not authorised its disclosure
- 2.4 health & safety
- 2.5 legal professional privilege and court records
- 2.6 information prohibited from disclosures by law or other obligations
- 2.7 information considered to be in commercial confidence.

3. CORPORATION CONFIDENTIAL MINUTES

Confidential information contained within Corporation papers and Minutes normally remain confidential for a period of six months after which such information may be released into the public domain. The Corporation may, from time to time, determine in respect of specific issues that the period of confidentiality shall be for a shorter or longer period, or shall be indefinite, depending upon the nature of the information concerned. Such confidential information shall be periodically reviewed.

4. PUBLIC AND MEDIA/PRESS ACCESS TO CORPORATION MEETINGS

In accordance with the College's Instrument & Articles of Governance, the question as to whether any person who is not

4.1 a member of the Corporation; or

4.2 The Clerk to the Corporation

should be allowed to attend a meeting of the Corporation shall be determined by the Corporation. The Corporation has resolved that its meetings are not normally public meetings, but that it may, in particular cases, determine that meeting(s) shall be open to the public.
